The Loch was a peaceful and beautiful mountain lake, and there were not very many people there. We ate lunch beside the lake, then hiked back toward Alberta Falls. The return hike to Alberta Falls took 1.5 hour and was not as exhausting because the trail was either downhill or flat.

This is a highly entertaining adventure from Alten, who is famous for his MEG series. I enjoyed the heck out of the science, story, and characters in this novel. THE LOCH is quite similar to some of the excellent books by Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child, like THUNDERHEAD, THE ICE LIMIT, and RIPTIDE. This is my favorite Alten novel.
